Dear Dick Hohstadt, Director,

(Addressed to OSSA/OASR Clubs and Key Contacts)

*New This week on BM114, key information/links, your next steps. *

New News:

The Oregon Sheriffs Association posted a good letter with their guidance for Oregon citizens. See the letter at this link <<https://www.ossa.org/2nd-amendment/oregon-state-sheriffs-association-bm114-letter-to-oregonians>>.

A key point is that there are still many unanswered questions. What we do know is that the Secretary of State has ordered that the bill go in effect on Dec. 8th. This most certainly stop all firearms purchase because the permit process is not in place and very likely could reject all current purchases still in the queue for background checks...

Unless a court action or legislative action occurs before December 8th.

The first of the inevitable lawsuits has been filed. Oregon Firearms Federation has filed suit <<https://www.ossa.org/2nd-amendment/oregons-measure-114-sees-first-challenge-oregon-firearms-federation-files-lawsuit-to-try-to-stop-strict-new-gun-limits>> for a declaratory judgement and injunction. My understanding is that this asks the court to at least put a hold/stay on the implementation until the full court process are carried out as to the constitutionality is determined. I found this video summary from WashingtonGunLaw <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YtvXNuDBG_w> interesting in describing the parts of the filing and the remedies; for those that don't like reading legal documents.

There are plenty of other groups indicating filings are emanant. NRA, FPC, 2ndAF...

OSSA/OASR continues to work with the Oregon Sportsmen Opposed to Gun Violence <<https://sportsmenno114.org/>> (let's call it the Sportsmen's Coalition) in their legal strategy and actions This group is comprised of key organizations that have the resources and experience to ensure success and effective results. Most notably in this group is the National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF <<https://www.nssf.org/>>). The NSSF has retained very experienced counsel and is preparing its solid case.

The Sportsmen's Coalition
<<https://sportsmenno114.org/coalition-members/>> desires and, as possible, is working with the other groups to coordinate the filings for the best result. It's important we work together and not torpedo each other's efforts. The initial judgement and injunction actions were expected; however, we feel the subsequent filings after BM114 goes into effect will be the most critical to defeat this attack on Oregon citizens.
